❤️ A Little Note From Us

As the busy fall season gets underway, we just want to say how much we appreciate all of you! One of our favorite parts of what we do is meeting so many wonderful people along the way. Whether you're visiting us at an art show, stopping by to say hello, or shopping with us online, it's always a pleasure connecting with you.

We're constantly discovering new stones, trying new ideas, and creating pieces that we hope you'll love as much as we enjoy making them. Your encouragement and continued support mean so much to our little family business.

We hope to see you at one of our upcoming shows, and if not, we're always just a click away!

Thank you for being part of our journey!

With appreciation,
Chris & Mike ❤️
